Foreword

The time has come for me to end my life in the halls of Fenton High and I look back and thank everyone who has helped to make these years so successful.

I wish to thank the whole annual staff for helping make this annual a success. We are all proud of it and hope you will be too.

I wish to thank our advisor, Mr. Buck, for being at my side and willing to help anytime I needed him; our principal, Mr. Greene; the school secretary and the rest of the faculty.

I wish to give special thanks to Peggy Louviere and Debbie Miller, who were not on the annual staff but worked to help complete the annual.

Very special thanks also to Melissa Miller and Jessica Bolton who were working constantly all year on our annual. Thank you all very much.

Dedicated to
Mrs. W. Chandler
for her many services given to the students and the school.

Principal's Message

Dear Class of 1971:

It has been a pleasure for me to have served as your principal. I have enjoyed watching you grow and improve yourselves during your school years.

It is my sincere hope that you will continue to strive for self-improvement in the new phase of life that you will now begin.

The faculty joins me in wishing each of you the very best.

Very truly yours,

FOREWORD

Here is the 1960-1961 edition of your Yearbook. We hope it will have a special meaning to each of you.

As we say farewell to the seniors, who are stepping out into the world to make their way, we hope the FLIGHT will be a reminder to them that Jesuit High is proud of them and happy to have recorded their activities and accomplishments.

To the juniors, the FLIGHT should be a reminder that the responsibility for carrying on the traditions of the school is now in their hands.

To all the students it should be a storage of fond memories for years to come.

REV. KEVIN A. NOWLAN, S.J.

70 years a jesuit

This year's edition of the FLIGHT, which summarizes the efforts and accomplishments of Jesuit High School's students, is dedicated to two priests whose lives have been shining examples of true dedication. These remarkable Jesuits are the Rev. Kevin A. Nowlan, S.J., and the Rev. Samuel Hill Ray, S.J., who this year celebrated their seventieth and fiftieth anniversaries, respectively, in the Society of Jesus. Together they represent one hundred and twenty years of cheerful, untiring devotion to the duties of the way of life to which they were called.

Father Nowlan was born in Dublin, Ireland, August 14, 1873, and there entered the Jesuit Order in 1890. In 1891 he came to the United States, and since then has been associated with the Jesuit system of education in every one of its schools in the South.

After his ordination to the priesthood on July 29, 1904, he took up duties as a teacher and prefect of discipline at Spring Hill College. Except for stints as a military chaplain in Tampa, Florida, in 1918-1919, and at Barksdale Air Force Base, Bossier City, he has devoted most of his priestly life to teaching Greek, Latin, French, Mathematics, or Science at Spring Hill College, Mobile, Alabama; St. Charles College, Grand Coteau, Louisiana; Jesuit High School, Tampa, Florida; Loyola University, New Orleans, Louisiana; and Jesuit High School, Shreveport, Louisiana. Jesuit High School of Shreveport, formerly St. John's High, has been particularly fortunate in having this outstanding educator on its faculty for thirty-five years.

Father Nowlan has been described as a "twinkle-eyed giant" whose main interests, besides the education of boys, have been people, parakeets, crossword puzzles, and the spiritual and political future of America.

At the age of 88, the years have forced Father Nowlan to reduce his work load. He has been chaplain at St. Vincent's Academy for eighteen years, and is in charge of the seminarians' public reading in the refectory of the Jesuit residence. Although his physician will no longer allow him to spend long hours in the confessional, he is still the confessor of many priests of the city.

Father Nowlan is gifted with a delightful sense of humor. When he took out

REV. SAMUEL H. RAY, S.J.

50 years a jesuit

United States citizenship papers on July 8, 1960, after 69 years in this country, he commented, "Frankly, I was worried. What if I walked up to the heavenly gates and had to tell St. Peter that I was an English subject? I'd never get in!"

Father Ray was born in Titusville, Florida, on January 11, 1894. He entered the Jesuit order in 1910 and received his B.A. and M.A. degrees from Gonzaga University in Spokane, Washington. He made his theological studies at the Immaculate Conception College, Montreal, Canada, where he was ordained to the priesthood in 1925.

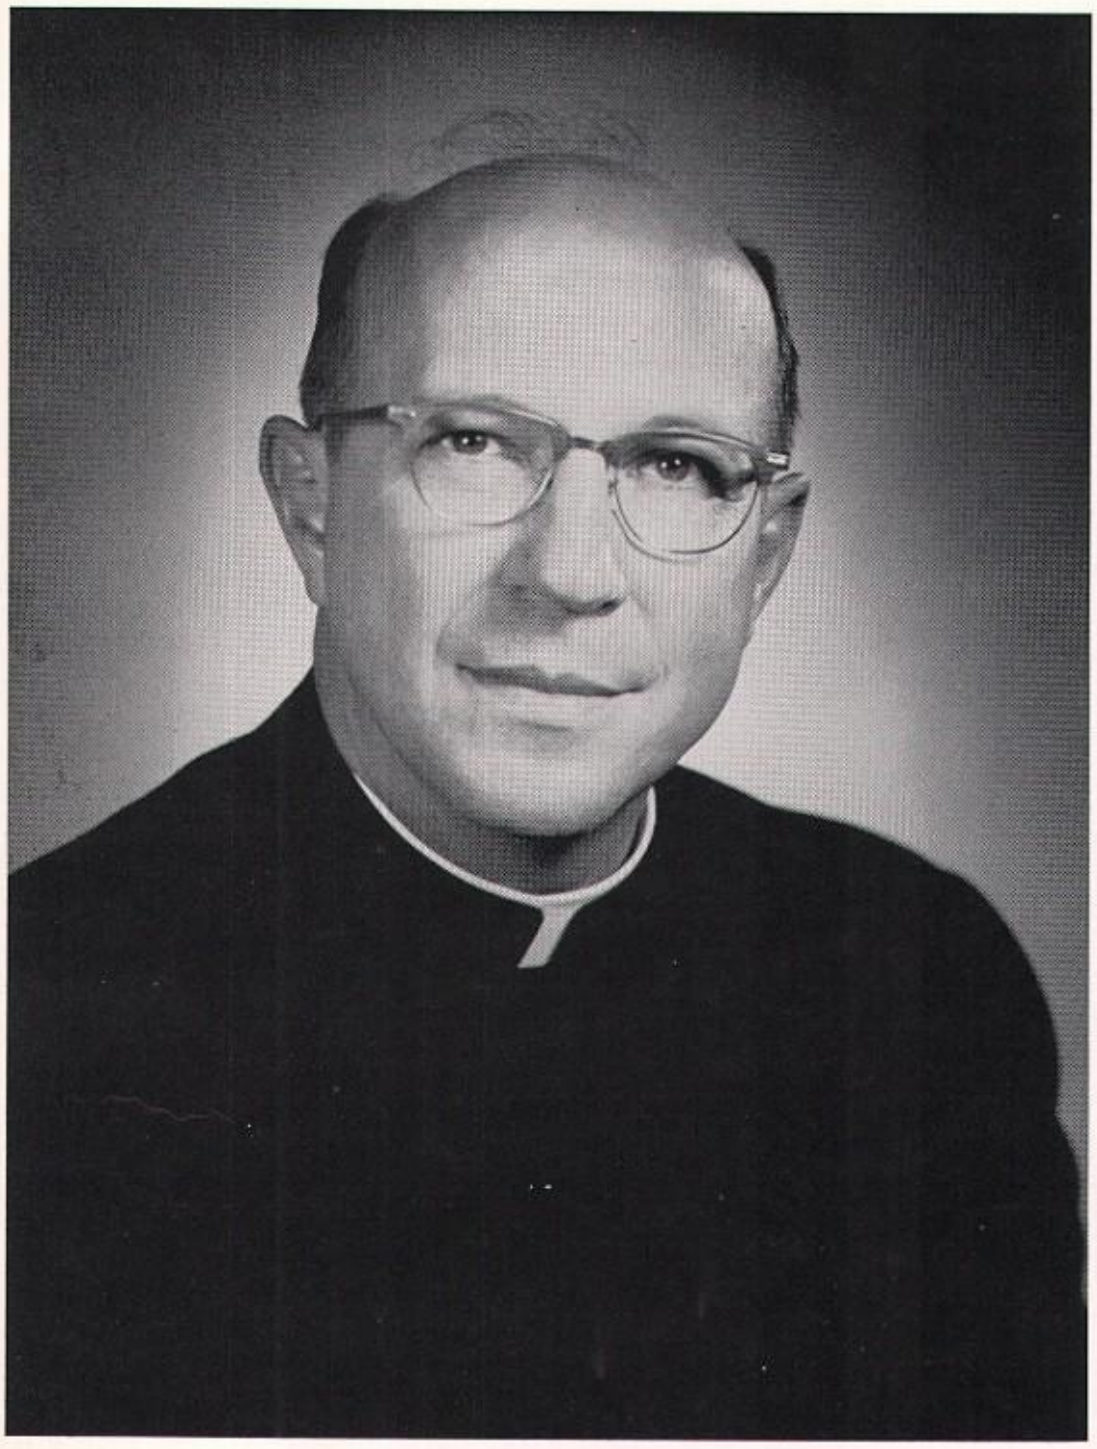
During his years as a Jesuit, Father Ray has served as dean of faculties at St. Charles College, Grand Coteau, Louisiana; retreat master at Grand Coteau; dean of men, student counsellor, and head of the department of theology at Loyola University, New Orleans, Louisiana; pastor of St. Ann's Catholic Church, West Palm Beach, Florida; and professor of religion and English at Jesuit High School, Shreveport, Louisiana.

In 1943 he began a tour of duty with the United States Navy as a chaplain with the rank of lieutenant. He served in the Pacific Theater, and his ability to communicate strength and courage to the men, combined with his own personal efforts, earned him three battle stars and four campaign ribbons. He was discharged in 1946 with the rank of lieutenant commander, and he is now a commander in the Naval Reserve. He is also a member of numerous veterans' organizations, on both a local and national level.

Impressive as it is, this is only a part of Father Ray's accomplishments. He is widely known and regarded for his work with youth, both in clerical and non-church activities such as the Boy Scouts. In his relentless work in the interest of youth, he was the founder and director of Our Lady of the Oaks Retreat House in Grand Coteau, Louisiana. His ready smile, his endless supply of interesting anecdotes, and his fatherly concern for the progress of the students have endeared him to the boys at Jesuit High. They know him not only as an excellent teacher, but as a friend.

To Father Nowlan and to Father Ray, two shining lights who have illuminated our paths, the students of Jesuit High School, past and present, say thank you with the dedication of this year's FLIGHT.

DEDICATION



president's message

Seniors of the Class of Sixty-one:

You are the first class to graduate from our school under its new name of Jesuit High School. While previous classes commenced a new life as graduates of a Jesuit high school, you begin as graduates of Jesuit High School itself, as Jesuit graduates, so that you will now carry not only the stamp of training, but the name, too, of "Jesuit."

That name is respected, admired, and beloved through the centuries and throughout the world. It means much to many, and we hope that it will be meaningful in your personal lives for the rest of your days.

There are many facets to the name of "Jesuit graduate." That name denotes men of balance — intelligent, cultured, courageous, articulate. May it primarily mean for you, men "like Jesus," for "Jesuit" is a contraction of the Latin words "Jesu-ita," Jesus was thus.

May His ideas be yours — about the world and God, success and suffering, the soul of man and eternity. May His values so be your very own, that His spirit and life, His courage and strength may permeate your whole being, so that every person with whom you come into contact may feel His presence in your soul and see His image in your life.

Sincerely in the Name of Jesus,

Michel B. Majoli, S.J.

MICHEL B. MAJOLI, S.J.
President

To the Flyers of Sixty-one:

The pursuit of personal excellence should be uppermost among the motivating principles of your life. With its relationship to the Divine Plan of Providence and with the confidence bred of the knowledge acquired and the character developed during these past years of effort, that pursuit can be forever a fresh, vigorous stimulus to success in all your life's adventures.

Let a growing maturity always enliven and continually strengthen you in this life-long pursuit of personal excellence. Be quickened with love of God and neighbor in their proper relationships to yourself and others. Become men of such stature and personal worth that excellence and its constant pursuit will be identified with you and your Alma Mater.

Congratulations! May you share in the gifts of the Holy Spirit that with the proper use of wisdom, understanding, and knowledge you may prudently and successfully advance in personal excellence and eventually arrive at the goal of your ultimate pursuit — the participation in the Divine Excellence forever.

Sincerely,

Charles A. Leininger, S.J.

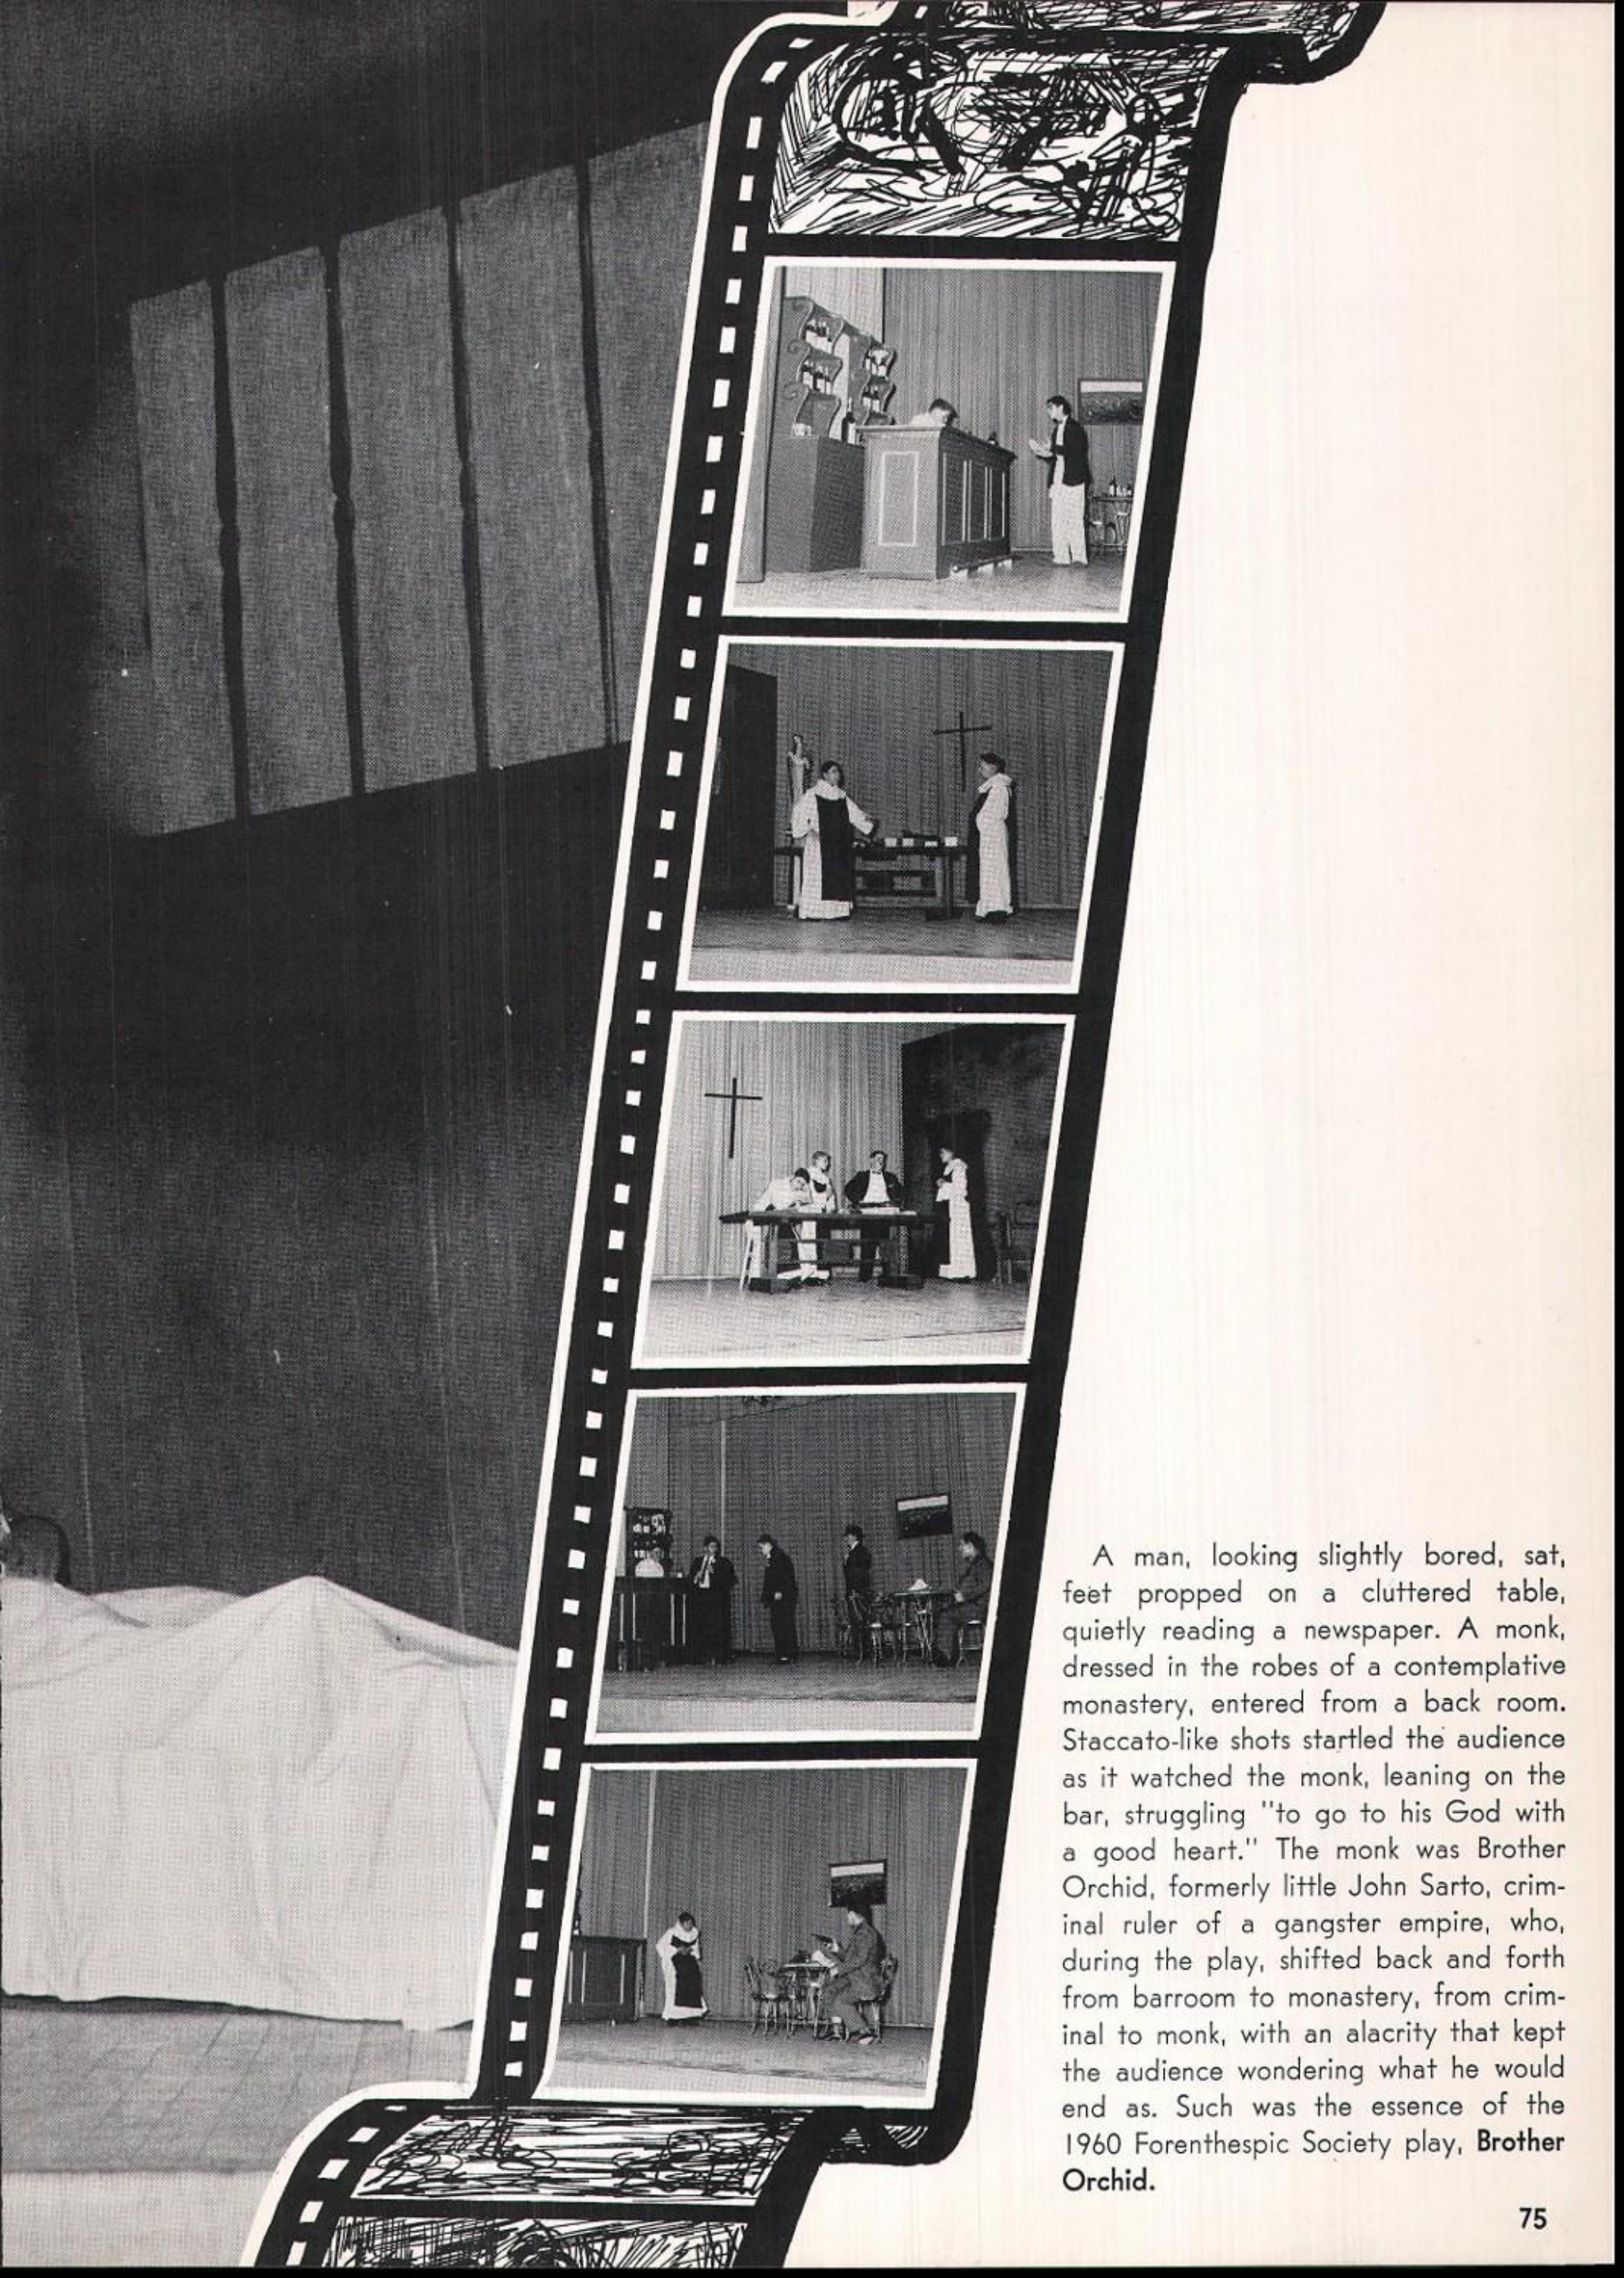
dramatics



A man, looking slightly bored, sat, feet propped on a cluttered table, quietly reading a newspaper. A monk, dressed in the robes of a contemplative monastery, entered from a back room. Staccato-like shots startled the audience as it watched the monk, leaning on the bar, struggling "to go to his God with a good heart." The monk was Brother Orchid, formerly little John Sarto, criminal ruler of a gangster empire, who, during the play, shifted back and forth from barroom to monastery, from criminal to monk, with an alacrity that kept the audience wondering what he would end as. Such was the essence of the 1960 Forenthespic Society play, Brother Orchid.

BOSSIER TOPS JESUIT, 14-0

. . . Tempers flared and jarring tackles were the order as Jesuit High's determined line engaged in a fierce struggle for real estate. The Flyers, keyed to a fever pitch for the game, turned in a superb defensive performance witnessed by some 5,000 fans. Quarterback Pete Prados and fullback Bucky Bovenzi divided most of the ball-packing chores, aided by Tommy Kimball's 48 yards in 11 carries.

HOMER TIES FLYERS, 13-13

. . . The Homer Pelicans came from behind to tie a fired-up Flyer team. Both teams rolled up eight first downs, with Homer's ground attack warranting a 59-yard advantage, while the Flyers took the over-all edge with 74 yards on three pass completions. A pass from Pete Prados to John Clark put Jesuit ahead at the end of the first half and gave the Flyers an all-important early margin. The defense worked the real miracle by holding the Pels to only one first down and 28 yards total offense.

MINDEN EDGES FLYERS, 19-13 . . . Minden's Crimson Tide had to fight hard in order to take a victory from the upset-minded Blue Flyers. The contest was spiced by several penalties in the hectic final minutes, and both teams had a player ejected from the heated combat. Halfback Tim Miciotto scored on a 16-yard burst to play havoc with the middle of Minden's line; and Jerry Barr plunged 19 yards to the Tide's 40, setting up an early touchdown threat.

JESUIT STORMS PAST COTTON VALLEY, 73-35

. . . The mighty Flyers of Jesuit rolled up an amazing 698 yards in total offense, overwhelming the visitors, who, throughout the contest posed an ever-present threat of getting into the scoring column. Jesuit handled the ball on only 40 offensive plays but just seemed to get into a scoring rhythm they couldn't break. Thanks to the fine coaching of C. O. Brocato, Frank Cicero, and Joe Sampite, Jesuit enjoyed its most successful season in 18 years.
